

Mt Rainier Cruisers May 2010 Newsletter

PT Cruiser has wheelchair accessible FMI kits for the disabled...

The wheelchair and handicap accessible FMI Chrysler PT Cruiser car conversions do little to alter the vehicle's sleek and stylish exterior. In fact, an FMI wheelchair accessible PT Cruiser is almost impossible to distinguish from the original vehicle - it's easy to miss the marvel of modern engineering contained within. Ride in style with the PT Rider, increase your mobility options with the PT DOS, or even drive the dream itself with the PT Driver. The choice is yours. If you're looking for a great alternative to a wheelchair van or handicap van, our accessible car conversions offer unprecedented good looks and functionality.

The new "Chevy PT Cruiser"? It's for real - a cool conversion kit, huh?

Shop Talk

Have a mechanical question about your PT Cruiser? Go to Chrysler.justanswer.com/pt-cruiser

Want to purchase some cool stuff for your Cruiser? Check this site out...

www.andysautosport.com (specializing in body upgrades and accessories)

Birthdays/Anniversaries for April...

Birthdays:

Bryan Ashcraft 5-14
Joyce Ball 5-18
Jeff Hogan 5-9
Theresa Hogan 5-6
Chris Paige 5-13

Anniversaries:

Gary and Tess Aldinger 5-18
Butch and Lin Gumm 5-27

Know of any illness, hospital stays, sympathies? Email to: rockanova@hotmail.com

TRIVIA QUESTION OF THE MONTH...

Q: What game was created by French mathematician Blaise Pascal, which he discovered when doing experiments into perpetual motion?

Last month's Q: What was the brand of the first home air freshener that was tested at the Lion House of the Bronx Zoo? answer: The Airwick freshner.

☺☺☺ Member of the Month ☺☺☺

I'm Jan Ljunggren (the "L" is silent) and have a 2003 PT Cruiser that I purchased on E-Bay. I had shopped and shopped for the perfect car with low mileage, the accessories and color I wanted, and at the right price. A dealer in Wyoming posted, what is now my car, on E-Bay. I called the dealer and checked the VIN number so I did feel confident that the car was in excellent condition. I crunched the numbers including tax, license, and what it would cost me to have it shipped to the Northwest. About two weeks later I met the delivery truck at the Super Mall and drove my car home for a good bath and detailing.

My other vehicle is my 1995 1500 Goldwing. In 2009 I put more miles on my Goldwing than I put on my PT.

LeRoy is retired but I still have a few more years to work. We are very blessed with a large family consisting of four boys, a daughter, twelve grandchildren and two Great Granddaughters. Life is Good.